

Visiting Cape Cod – April 2018

As Spring arrives, it was time to re-visit Cape Cod, MA. Our favorite haunts were open from Orleans to P-Town and we found several new keepers. There is nothing like a 2-mile walk on the Bike Trail before breakfast followed by a sunny and warm 6-mile hike towards Jeremy Point in Wellfleet. Lunch and R&R followed that day! No whales or live dolphins, but it wasn't for lack of trying.
