

Greyson Conquers the Bald Rock at the Hedges – June 13, 2021

There are family traditions and then there are family traditions. This album verifies that Greyson Dean, aka Grey, jumped off the Bald Rock in Blue Mountain Lake, NY, on June 13, 2021 twice and lived to tell about it. He followed in his dad Dave's footprints, his uncle Steve's footprints, and his grandfather Jim. Alas, evidence of his grandpa Jim are not available, but check out Dave and Steve.
